

Narcotics Arrests by Community Area, and Facilities... Where

Community areas north to south, where each bubble represents a census tract inside them. There is one unique point that represents where there is any over arrests occur and where a mental health or substance use treatment facility, or provider is present

Source: City of Chicago Data