

Narcotics Arrests by Community Area, and Facilities... Where are they?

Community areas north to south, where each bubble represents a census tract and the number of drug arrests that occurred inside them. There is one unique point that represents where there is any overlap between where narcotics arrests occur and where a mental health or substance use treatment facility, or Buprenaphren treatment provider is present

